The contest was one of the most in The main fight was upon a proposed inome tax providing for an amendment to the constitution to meet the adverse decision of the Supreme Court upon the Wilson law. It was upon this mendment and the gold plank, the two propositions having been brought in onjunction, that Mr. Bryan made his strong fight. Mr. Williams of Mississippi first offered the income tax amendment, and it was immediately antagonized by Former Senator Hill. who stated that with such a plank in the platform New York could not be carried for the Democratic nominees He urged the adoption of a platform which will enable the Democrats to win in doubtful States and elect their candidates. After several other members had been heard briefly, the question was demanded. The gold plank was stricken out by a vote of 35 to 15.

Early in the night Mr. Bryan had St. Louis, July 8.-At 4:40 this morn- withdrawn temporarily his income tax ing the committee on resolutions voted resolution. At this juncture an attempt was made to secure a recess, but was unsuccessful, Senator Tillman remarking that "it was sun-up and we might as well go ahead."

Mr. Bryan got the floor soon after the adoption of the motion striking out the gold plank and informally presented for the individual consideration of the members a financial plank which it is his intention later to present as a substitute for the gold plank.

The Panama Canal plank brought out zevere criticism from Senator Petti-grew. He said that the canal could not te built in ten years, and, when comeresting features of the convention pleted it would be valueless. The plank was modified so as to promise to de what could be done when the Demo cruts get control of the Government.

The committee then took up the rust plank. This was the subject of considerable discussion, Senator Bailey being among the more important speakers in defense of the sub-committee's report.

Bryan offered an amendment to this plank declaring in specific terms for done. This was voted in by 23 to 20.

SAYS NEW YORK PRESS

Sleepy Delegates

There is no doubt that Governor Carter made a hit in the Republican Conspondents have given a variety of stor ies of how it struck the delegates. This is what the New York Press report says:

When Mr. Foraker arose to offer his amendment increasing the two votes allowed by the committee to five the delegates showed signs of an awakening and began a clamor for a speech from Foraker that showed how hungrily they longed for just one little change from the set program. They demanded an address from the popular Obioan, and got it, but with more than was bargained for. Senator Foraker made use of his opportunity only to present his amendment and in a few words to recommend to the convention Governor Carter of Hawaii.

It sounds big and dignified to say "Governor Carter," and when you read the name you are reminded of some one with the long white whiskers and patriarchal appearance of Governor Dole. Carter looks anything except like that. He is a young, athletic looking chap who seems the incarnation of a modified type of one of Gibson's col legians. It is a safe reckoning that he was a handy man in a physical way when he went to Ann Arbor. He looks like a fighter, and he acts with a Rooseveltian impetuosity.
